

Zoning Questions Answered At Meet

By GWEN BARKAN
FA 8-0859

Zoning continues to be the big subject for discussions here in the Carson district, and a fine crowd attended the last meeting in connection with the matter last Friday night. Mr. Wallace of the Regional Planning Commission presented a map of proposed zoning and answered questions on the subject. It's hard to take a long view of this matter, but the planners try to do just that, and every property owner will be shown just what is planned for his property if he'll attend some of these meetings. The idea is to bring the matter clearly to the public before any vote is taken. Every meeting will be fully publicized. This last meeting was held at the Carson St. School under the sponsorship of the Carson St. PTA.

The newly-formed Brownie Troop under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Stevens and Mrs. Joyce Bates had a little party at their last meeting and are busy gathering work kits so that they may begin work on their projects. Mrs. Stevens urges all mothers to send the scissors, needles, etc. necessary for the completion of these kits so that the girls may get started. This troop is one of three recently formed under the sponsorship of Carson St. PTA.

The fourth grade children in rooms 7 and 9 of Carson St. School, under the watchful eye of Mrs. V. Skadden and Mrs. V. Smith went on a field trip to Olvera St. last Wednesday. They took their lunches with them and left the school at 9:30 a.m., going back to school at about 1:30. In addition to Olvera St., the youngsters also inspected the beautiful Union Depot and the Plaza.

Notes on Narbonne

Narbonne Students Begin Split Shifts

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
DA 6-3703

Well, by now everyone's pretty well adjusted to the new semester and also the new half-day session. The senior high kids who have classes starting at 7:30 in the morning will probably have a little trouble adjusting themselves to the new time schedule!

Narbonne extends its heartfelt welcome to all the B-7's and new students.

It is sure going to be awful quiet with the seniors gone. The seniors all agreed that Deacon Dan Towler gave an inspiring speech. Mr. Barnett awarded 52 diplomas. After graduation, the seniors had a party, which incidentally lasted until 6 a.m.

Manuel Peralez Named Probation Officer in Area

Assigned as deputy county probation officer for the Torrance-Lomita area recently was Manuel Peralez, a World War II Marine and graduate of University of Southern California. During the late '30s, Peralez was known in Southern California boxing circles as "Kid" Manuel. At one time he held the mythical middleweight amateur boxing crown of Riverside, and has covered many boxing events for Southland newspapers.

Peralez began work with the county as deputy probation officer in June, 1951. He was first assigned to the Forestry Camp program which operates several forestry camps for juvenile delinquents from this county. After more than two years there, he was transferred to the Lomita Beach office, which has jurisdiction over Torrance, Gardena, Lomita, Harbor City, and other adjacent areas.

ROTC Cadet Honored

Cadet Cpl. Jack O'Can, of 1750 Date Ave., received the Academic Achievement award for excellence in Military Science recently at Santa Barbara College of the University of California, according to Lt. Col. H. H. Haines, chairman of the department of military science.

We have two Cayton boys making the news this week. First, salute Charles the 13-year-old, who is making musical history. He played the first movement of the "Moonlight Sonata" at a recital held last week in the Torrance Woman's Club. Charles is also the accompanist for the Wilmington Junior High Chorus, and is a joy to all who hear him.

No less outstanding in his field is David Cayton, who is in his senior year at Gardena High School. His project in Metal Shop there this semester was chosen to receive the semi-annual award of the Gardena Rotary Club for outstanding achievement in some field of shop work. He constructed a circle-cutter. This tool can be used in many ways. From one side it cuts holes, such as door knobs, and it can then be turned to produce wheels. He was presented the award at a special banquet at the Western Ave. Country Club. He was given a plaque for himself and his name was inscribed on the one that remains at the school. This is certainly the age for invention and design, and we wish David all good luck in the future.

The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cayton, 635 W. 214th St.

Stacy B. Stevens, now with the 44th Infantry Division of Fort Lewis, Wash., has spent the last month mainly in transit! He surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stevens, 2221 S. Moneta, by arriving home just in time for Christmas Eve. He was then stationed at Fort Ord. Since his time was limited, he and his mother and sister, Vicki, drove back up the coast the Monday following Christmas, where they visited Monterey while he was cleared to go to Fort Lewis. Then all returned here for the two weeks before he left for Washington.

at the Wilmington Woman's Club. All reported that it was really fun.

Don't forget, Gauchos, to save your newspapers and old rags for the coming paper and rag drive.

The first big dance of the new semester, which is sponsored by the A-12's, is approaching on Friday, Feb. 25, in the gym. The band is yet to be decided. The attire is sports clothes. Tickets will go on sale for $1.25 per couple. So come on boys, let's ask that special date!

Joan (Broad) Warner was the honored guest at a wedding shower at her home given by Mary Hatheway. Joan, who graduated Friday evening, was married to Paul Warner, U. S. Navy, last December. She received many lovely gifts. Those who attended were Marge Cullinan, Julia Delgado, Laura Tolbert, Vicki Taylor, Dorothy Seales, Delores Langerud, Kay Garner, Millie Childs, Lila Cordray, Judy Patterson, Carmen Ochoa, Mary Hatheway and the honoree, Joan.

Kay (Bader) Garner, who was just graduated, is joining her baby at Stocky Hill Air Force Base in Salina, Kans.

Kay Curry is touring Europe as a graduation present.

A group from the Western Avenue Baptist Church (very obviously celebrating the end of the semester) went miniature golfing, then went to the Pikes. The kids reported that they had kicks.

Calling all senior high girls, calling all senior high girls: If you like sports and enjoy having a lot of fun, then join the Senior GA! Pronto! Narbonne will host four schools, Manual Arts, Polytechnic, Venice, and Gardena in playday to be held here April 7. Get your eligibility and dues in early.

If enough girls sign up with Judy Patterson or Miss Herwig soon, a bus will be obtained to take girls home, who otherwise have no transportation.

Many Gauchos heard our A Cappella Choir on KFI at 11:30 Sunday morning and agreed that it was great.

Come on, Gauchos, get that payment on the El Eco
